

Mr. Zhang Shigang, joined UNEP as the Country Coordinator of UNEP China Office based in Beijing in 2007. Mr. Zhang has over 20 years experience in environmental science and international cooperation. He held a number of senior positions in the government including the Deputy Permanent Representative of China to UNEP (2003-2007). He currently is the Vice Chair of UN Thematic Group on Climate Change and Environment in China.

Since he joined UNEP, he has contributed to the strengthened partnership of UNEP and China especially in the area of climate change, green Beijing Olympic Games and Wenchuan post-earthquake recovery and reconstruction. He also supported UNEP to develop long-term partnership with key organizations of various levels of the government. He is actively working to UNEP China Office for a bigger role and stronger involvement in China.
