

Mr Wijkman is a former Member of the European Parliament (EP), 1999-2009. where he specialised on issues related to sustainable development, health policy, climate and energy and development cooperation. Before the EP Mr Wijkman held positions at the UN (assistant secretary general and policy director of UNDP), director general of SAREC (the Swedish Agency for Research Cooperation with Developing Countries), secretary general of the Swedish Red Cross and secretary general of the Swedish Society for Nature Conservation. Mr Wijkman is vice chair of the Tällberg Foundation and vice president of the Club of Rome. He is a member of the Swedish Royal Academy of Sciences as well as the Swedish Royal Academy of Forestry and Agriculture. Mr Wijkman is the author of several books on issues related to disaster prevention, sustainable development, climate change and HIV/Aids"