CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

WHAT FUTURE DO WE SEE FOR OUR COMMUNITIES?

18th April

VIENNA

IMAGINING FUTURE / RECONCILING THE PAST / SHARING POWER

Be part of the
one-day workshop
and start
RESHAPING FUTURE
together

DEAR COLLEAGUES,
in the world full of crises, it is difficult to still believe in a good life for all. On the other hand, we have experienced in many projects and processes of the last decades that there is not only a great longing, but also possibilities and methods to free ourselves together from the constraints of the crisis-like conditions of our world.

NOW, WE WANT TO WORK ON THIS TOGETHER:

What if wellbeing is prioritized over economic growth?

What if care for others is prioritized over novel products?

What if cultivation of trust is prioritized over efficiency and productivity?

How to track our progress?

We are artists, scientists, activists and concerned citizens. We feel and think beyond the conditions of the here and now, how a good life, social and economic prosperity is possible within the limits set by nature.

The aim of this workshop is to think broadly, listen deeply and to discover creative, authentic and serious ideas about how we want to live in the region in the future. We want to exchange ideas and experiences to get an even broader understanding what is possible and how we can spread what worked beyond specific projects.

To prepare for the one-day workshop and reserve most of our precious time together for personal exchange we created shared online space to exchange our achievements but also questions and plans for the future.

The goal is to create step by step a growing space/community where we can learn from each other and combine our activities in imagining future, reconciling the past and rethinking distribution of power through various practices, and codesigned experiments with cities and communities.
